FORMER GERMAN LINERS SAIL UNDER U. S. PLAG

New York, Aug. 3.—Two of America's largest liners, both of them formerly un-der the German flag, left today for wideington, for Cherhourg and Bremen, and the 10,000 ton Huron, for Rio De Janie-and Bunos Aires. The George Washington carried more than 1,800 massengers, among them 250, members of the American Legion on their way to France for a visit to the battlefields. A large delegation of legionnairse was present to see them away, and a harbor tug earling officials of the oranguation, accompanied the vessel as

A hand was on hand to cheer the de-arture. As the ship let go her lines, as National Anthem brought the former soldiers to attention and as she pass-ed out into the Hudson to awing her bow seaward, there broke from her main-must the Legion's emblem.

A pathetic rouch was added to the de-parture. The passengers, while passing along the entrance to the plen walked had "gone west." As they passed the caskets voices of the legionnaires were instantly stilled, hats were removed and many a hand came up in a salute of respect as they tipted the way to the gangway of the vessel.
